Josephine Bowen is a strong willed woman with a sword sharp wit, stainless loyalty, and a priceless heart. After enduring a host of physical and emotional challenges in order to become a modern day jousting, she's finally earned her knighthood. Now, it's time to go on the road with the Gallant Company to earn her keep. She faces both bodily injury and the doubts of outsiders as her jousting skills are tested and honed. Strengthening her relationship with both her horse and her best friend (who is perhaps something more) proves riddled with challenges and tears. Yet, no matter the trials before her, she continues to surprise, because if jousting has taught her anything it's that some things are worth the risk.
