Blue Plate Special, set in present day South Boston, delves into the effects of PTSD on a veteran police officer, Danny, who witnesses the death of his only daughter, Amanda, eight years prior. Danny is struggling through homelessness, self-imposed alienation and unsuccessful attempts to re-enter society. His struggle sets off an emotional chain reaction in those around him that will have life altering effects. The main setting for this gripping drama is the local police hangout, Kelly's Diner. Kelly's is run by Amanda's best friend from childhood, Sally, and her volatile husband, Walter, a terminated Boston PD officer. When you find yourself at your worst moments, what will you do to survive?
