Little Bear wakes up very early one morning and makes a special wish to find a special present for his mother's birthday. He decides that a star would be the most special present of all, but how is he going to catch a star for his mother? With the help of his friends Hoppity Bunny and Green Frog, Little Bear tries again and again to catch a star. Finally, a small puddle gives Little Bear a great idea and he runs down to the stream. With a lot of hard work, Little Bear is proud to give his mother a very special gift.

Holographic images on the cover and throughout the book, highlight the special and magical effects of the story.
