The Amish Impact: From City to Farm (Cultural Diversity Series) Wendi Hartman

When Eli (12) and Elizabeth (11) Hopewell learn that they are leaving their beloved Boston and moving to rural Pennsylvania, they know their lives will never be the same. This new chapter in their story quickly becomes intriguing as they uncover never-before-told secrets from their parents' upbringing among the "plain" Brethren and Amish communities. A providential reunion with their estranged Amish relatives gives the brother and sister their first opportunity to experience the Amish way of life...the first of many to come in this entertaining series.
