Landscape Painting (Classic Reprint) Birge Harrison

This little book represents the fulfilment of a promise to put into permanent form certain impromptu talks on landscape painting given before the Art Students League of New York at its summer school at Woodstock, N. Y. No effort has been made to elaborate the themes treated, the writer feeling that what might be gained in literary form might very well be lost in spontaneity and conciseness of statement. It is hardly necessary to say that these little talks make no claim to infallibility of judgment.
