Tall Tales of an Alaska State Trooper Robert James "Bob" Robertson

In 1959, Robert J. Robertson moved his growing family from Spokane to Alaska for the promise of adventure and profit in a family construction business. When plans fell through, he joined the newly-formed Alaska State Troopers, first as a dispatcher and then as a uniformed Trooper. This book records his adventures and mishaps, or "Tall Tales," in the wry, sardonic voice befitting a reluctant law enforcement officer on the Last Frontier.
