Britain at War 1939-45 (How It Was Series) Michael Rawcliffe

This is part of the "How it Was" series of books designed for Key Stage 3 students of National Curriculum history. Short chapters introduce and develop specific themes, as well as providing a variety of further activities. Basic understanding is tested in the "can you remember" and "check your understanding" sections of each chapter, while source-based "things to do" encourage the development of specific historical skills.
