Florence Museum Index

Florence ranks as the art capital of Italy, and the world as well. The center of the Italian Renaissance art movement, Florence is filled with some of the greatest paintings, frescoes, and sculpture in the Western world. No European cultural trip could be complete without spending a few days exploring the streets, art museums, and churches of this great city. The ARTWISE® Florence Italy Museum Map was designed to help organize your time and facilitate your travels in order to experience as many museums as you have time to visit.

The first museum to see is the Uffizi Gallery, which houses works by Botticelli, da Vinci, Michelangelo, Titian, and Rubens. Other must see museums are the Galleria dell'Accademia, Duomo Museum (Museo dell'Opera del Duomo), the Pitti, the Palazzo Vecchio and the architectural masterpiece, Brunelleschi's Duomo. Florence is home to spectacular art filled churches like Santa Croce, where you'll find the tomb of Michelangelo by Giorgio Vasari. A monument to Florentine native Florence Nightingale is located in the cloister.

This detailed map of central Florence covers everything, culturally speaking. The index identifies all museums, gallery walks, churches of artistic interest and other cultural institutions. Each listing includes hours, admission charge information, address, telephone, map reference and a brief description of the museum's highlights.

With this stylish map you'll be able to experience fully this feast of genius and talent. Of course, when you are thoroughly exhausted and numb from all that you have seen, you'll be able to find your way back to your hotel as well. Let the ARTWISE® Florence Italy Museum Map be your guide.
