Revenge, Fears, and Lies...Can Anyone Be Trusted?

Jean is finding freedom from her past and Grant has hopes for their future. Slash is in jail, and Candy moves forward with her new ministry despite it scandalizing half the church and forcing the rest to face their own prejudices and fears.

When a former friend calls for help, Candy and Jean must decide to either trust her or turn her away. Is she truly seeking freedom, or is her request a cover for someone else's darker purpose?

The choice they make will have consequences for every person they love, and every hope they have for the future.
