The next John Grisham! A District Attorney is in bed with Chinese organized crime. Natasha Roit knows California law, those who break it, and those who are the victims....only this time, the victims are strong-willed people who in the end get even. Along the way, the author topples a big city district attorney and assures the career of a contender for the job. We live the hot and sexy affair of our heroine, Tess. The story starts with murder and ends with vengeance.
