Rabbits (2nd Edition) (A Pet's Life) Anita Ganeri

This series aims to help children develop an understanding of how to care for pets and the needs of different pets. Each book looks at the needs of common pets at different stages of their life-cycles from babies to old age. They take a chronological approach through the differing requirements of the pets as they grow. Information is provided on the particular animal and the different types that people keep as pets. The books cover the key requirements including the pet's new home, feeding and cleaning.
