The Plays of Bruce Mason: A Survey John Smythe

Bruce Mason (1921–1982) was a playwright by vocation and widely regarded as New Zealand's best. Yet while The Pohutukawa Tree, The End of the Golden Weather and Awatea have enjoyed great success, his seven other full length plays have unaccountably been ignored. His four award-winning short plays, a comic operetta, three other solo plays and many review sketches have also slipped below time's horizon. Then there are his teleplays: three broadcast after his death and one that was never produced. The Plays of Bruce Mason is the first comprehensive survey of Mason's dramatic works.
