Golf is God's Game: Golf from a Biblical Perspective Tony Small

At the age of seven, author Tony M. Small accompanied his parents to the local golf course, never knowing that golf would become an integral part of his life. After a few years of playing, Small couldn't imagine life without it. After graduating from college, Small realized that his love for golf, when combined with his personal relationship with God, made him a better golfer. Golf is God's Game is Small's story of the journey that has given him insight into life, golf, and the interpersonal relationships necessary to be successful in golf and in business. Using the wonderful stories in the Bible as a basis for the structural knowledge necessary to play great golf, Golf is God's Game relates the mental and emotional side of the game, with Biblical background to help the common person become a better golfer, person, and spouse. Small discusses subjects such as the following: Coping with your failures Developing patience and self-control Expressing love Learning to listen to God Through an honest and sincere relationship with God, you can find the strength necessary to improve your golf game and your life! This is one book about golf your wife would want you to own, and read!
