Letters from a Theist: Against the Idolization of Jesus Tod E. Jones

Written to a recent convert to Evangelical Christianity, Letters from a Theist addresses issues including the self-identification of Jesus, the meaning of discipleship, the honorific claims made about him by early Christians, and the novelty of his teaching, as well as its truthfulness and moral value. While controversial in tone, the Letters uphold the integrity of the intellectual, moral, and spiritual life of the believer in God.
