Living as a holy Catholic woman is challenging. How does a girl balance friends, boys, expectations, academics, and the future all while living out her faith? And who, outside of our family, do we look up to as a role model of living out true Catholic femininity? How about that one girl that changed the course of history when she was just a teenager like you? You know, that one girl who never turned away from God? That One Girl is Mary, the Mother of God. Jesus doesn't want you to think of Mary merely as a statue in the corner of your church; He wants you to learn from her and live like her. He wants you to love her as He loves her...and to love her, we must know her.
