The Lessons of History Will Durant

In this illuminating and thoughtful book, Will and Ariel Durant have succeeded in distilling for the reader the accumulated store of knowledge and experience from their four decades of work on the ten monumental volumes of "The Story of Civilization." The result is a survey of human history, full of dazzling insights into the nature of human experience, the evolution of civilization, the culture of man. With the completion of their life's work they look back and ask what history has to say about the nature, the conduct and the prospects of man, seeking in the great lives, the great ideas, the great events of the past for the meaning of man's long journey through war, conquest and creation - and for the great themes that can help us to understand our own era.

To the Durants, history is "not merely a warning reminder of man's follies and crimes, but also an encouraging remembrance of generative souls ... a spacious country of the mind wherein a thousand saints, statesman, inventors, scientists, poets, artists, musicians, lovers, and philosophers still live and speak, teach and carve and sing..."

Designed to accompany the ten-volume set of "The Story of Civilization, The Lessons of History" is, in its own right, a profound and original work of history and philosophy.

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Lessons of History can make you feel more interested to read.
