Anglesey: The Island's Story Michael Senior

"An island always has an unique character and a distinct history of its own, and Anglesey is no exception to this rule. Since prehistoric time, man has found it a hospitable place to live in, even though it has seen much turmoil and many different invaders over the centuries. Today the evidence of the different ages of man are well-preserved on Anglesey, and this interestingly illustrated book by a local historian guides us to those sometimes quite remote places of interest, putting them all in their historical background..."
