Going Dark (Thorn P.I.) James W. Hall

The New York Times Book Review calls Edgar Award winner James W. Hall a “master of suspense,” and this new high-stakes thriller shows why as Thorn embarks on a mission to save his newfound son.

Earth Liberation Front, known as ELF, is a loosely knit organization comprised of environmental activists scattered around the country. These extremists take a “by any means necessary” approach to defending the planet. In the last decade ELF has been responsible for close to a hundred million dollars in damage mainly through arson. The FBI ranks them, along with other eco-radicals, as the number-one homegrown terrorist threat.

Flynn Moss, Thorn’s newly discovered son, has naively fallen in with an ELF cell in Miami which has its sights on Turkey Point, the largest nuclear power plant in the state. This ELF group has concocted a nonviolent plan to shut the nuke plant down?nothing more than a huge publicity stunt to call attention to the dangers of nuclear power. But unbeknownst to some in the group, there are other members with a far more violent scheme in mind?to cause a radioactive catastrophe rivaling Chernobyl or Fukushima.

With a growing sense of dread about Flynn’s whereabouts, Thorn tracks down this son he barely knows to Prince Key, the remote island off the shores of Miami where the ELF group is camped. Once he arrives at Prince Key, Thorn quickly reaches a frightening realization: There is only one way to save his son’s life. He must join with the ecoterrorists and help them complete their deadly mission.

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Going Dark (Thorn P.I.) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
