The Literally Speaking Parent-Teacher Workbook will help facilitate communication about students with mixed expressive receptive language disorder, better known as MERLD. Teachers will like this short workbook designed to facilitate conversation between parents and teachers. It's tough for parents and teachers to sit down and have in-depth conversations as everyone's time is at a premium these days. This workbook will help you give your child's teacher pertinent information unique to your child. It will also give your child's teacher insights about MERLD and some strategies to help in the classroom. Plus, there's plenty of room for both parent and teacher notes.
