Love Me Right: His Touch (Volume 1) Beast

DeAngelo was done with men. After barely surviving a very public and extremely emotional breakup with the supposed love of his life, DeAngelo had given up on love. He thought he was damaged goods and that something was wrong with him. How else could he explain not being able to find a man willing to be faithful? He almost gave up on himself. Then he met him, a man whose brown eyes peered into DeAngelo's soul and whose touch left him weak in the knees.

Shawn wasn't a lover. He didn't have time to let his heart get caught up in another man's world. He had too many responsibilities. Responsibilities that had forced him to make some very hard choices at a very young age. Being in love wasn't a viable option. The choice wasn't his to make. But after being with DeAngelo, not being in love seemed more and more like the impossible option.

When their worlds collided DeAngelo and Shawn had no idea that their relationship would force them to reconsider and reevaluate who they thought they were. And they find out if love is truly strong enough to overcome all the hurt, pain and baggage that comes from battles of the heart.
