Sacred Journey Ward Tanneberg

In the Christian life, we have the privilege of being led by the Good Shepherd, but every journey has to end. In a word picture framed by her final eighteen months on earth, Ward Tanneberg tenderly unpacks Dixie's story, that of a private woman who lived a public life, not by choice, but by divine calling. While seeking to know a heavenly Father as elusive to her as her own had been, her life becomes a tapestry of struggle, faith, courage, and, in the end, triumph. And she does not waste her cancer. Bereavement groups, caregivers, and individuals coping with loss may find the discussion questions following the text helpful for traveling their own sacred journeys. Published in connection with Hartline Literary Agency, serving the Christian book community. Visit us at www.hartlineliterary.com. ... Some love stories just need to be told—even the final pages of that story. Maybe especially those final pages. In the beautiful memoir, Sacred Journey, author Ward Tanneberg writes with a poignant tenderness about the life journey he and his beloved wife, Dixie, walked together. The path was not always easy, but in their story, we find hope for ours. Dr. Jodi Detrick, Speaker, former columnist for The Seattle Times Author of The Jesus-Hearted Woman Poignant, heartwarming and incredibly uplifting. In Sacred Journey, Ward tells the story of Dixie's well-lived life, from meager beginnings, to touching and impacting thousands of lives. You will laugh, cry and be forever changed. If you read one book this year—read Sacred Journey. Dr. Chuck Stecker, President A Chosen Generation.
