Violent acts are committed every day. Some involve people who are our “every day man” or woman who has never reacted in a violent manner before. This is especially true in the case of air rage. However, many times these angry people may be unable to control his or her violent nature. Violent acts and outbursts affect all those around these angry people. Sometimes leading to death. Societal Rage: Problem solving for our increasingly violent world includes useful tools to help control our ever-increasing violence. This book may not stop all violence, but it is a great first step toward controlling anger. Author, Rebecca Black of Etiquette Now! has taught countless etiquette and life skills workshops. Now you can have this same advice and life skills in the palm of your hand without spending hundreds of dollars to attend one of her workshops.
