Rasheeda born the oldest of the Wilson Sister. Her father groomed her to be the queen of the empire that he built from the ground up from the moment she could walk and talk. After her father's death she jumped head first into the business. Money has never been an issue. It's the loyalty that's hard to find. Rasheeda is now twenty-one and running Miami. Rasheeda being all about her business, she hasn't taken time out for love because she refuses to let her guards down. After meeting somebody who she thought she could trust, she finds herself loving a snake who had a secret that will make her regret the day she gave herself to him. Rasheeda will have to deal with being lied to and other series of unfortunate events to get herself back on top. She finds herself back at square one and somebody from her past resurfaces. She eventually realizes that her father had everything planned out for her and her sisters and only time will tell what those plans actually are.
