Trent (The Ninth Inning) (Volume 4) Lindsay Paige, Mary Smith

The Ninth Inning series presents Memphis Angels' second baseman, Trent Baker. Trent Baker is struggling after losing his wife. He has to enlist the help of his grandmother to help him care for his daughter while trying to play baseball and work through his grief. The girl he meets at the gym becomes a friend and someone he can talk to, but she brings her own complications to the table. Scarlett Knowles is a caring social worker who puts the needs of the children before her. When Scarlett finally gets the nerve to speak to Trent, she believes it'll be a one-time encounter until he keeps popping up everywhere she goes. The more they run into each other and the more they talk, the worse she feels about the secret she carries. When the secret is revealed, more complications arise to put them both in a predicament neither are sure they want. The win will be hard fought, but are Trent and Scarlett willing to put in the work together?
