Ethics & Risk Management for Christian Coaches Michael J Marx

As a Christian coach or coach-in-training, you undoubtedly want to get your professional relationships right--right with clients, right with other coaches, and right with your community. Adhering to a strong code of ethics--the principles that define right conduct--will empower you to behave morally and limit the risks inherent to coaching.

In the first comprehensive book focused specifically on ethics for Christian coaches, Dr. Michael Marx equips readers to face coaching dilemmas by providing insights and clarifying industry standards. Using case studies and real-life scenarios, the author makes the subject relevant and practical.

Whether you are launching into your coaching career or are a seasoned veteran seeking to improve your practice, Ethics and Risk Management for Christian Coaches is an essential guide. You'll find clarity and practical, biblically guided wisdom on a subject that directly impacts the way you interact with and serve others.
