George the Painter: A Bathroom Reader George Frizzell

In spring of 2006, George Frizzell, aka George the Painter, agreed to write a monthly column for The Horse/Backstreet Choppers magazine. The column quickly became George's podium, his opportunity to expound on everything from the over-use of cell-phones to his personal demons and health issues.

To say that George has a way with words is a huge understatement: "...Little did I realize but every injury that I endured from some bike related mishap that I miraculously walked away from was never really forgotten. All the drunken cartwheels that I experienced when I was launched from my saddle during some drug and alcohol induced stupidity would be held in escrow only to be paid for later down the road..."

George the Painter - A Bathroom Reader, is five years worth of George's columns, roughly 75,000 words - and an additional 48 pages of color photos. And whether the topic is motorcycles, the posers who ride them or his recent trip from Arizona to the East Coast, the prose is entertaining and truly unique. George has a huge following, and after reading just a small sample of his writing, it's easy to see why.
