Sully crash lands onto Grandpa's front porch and scares Grandpa. Will Grandpa be upset and nurse his hurt feelings? Will Grandpa and Sully play the blame game? Will Grandpa, an American, and Sully, from a foreign country, choose to reject one another because they don't look or talk alike? Do they have anything in common to build a relationship on? Grandpa and Sully is a delightful story about how two strangers meet and through friendly conversation become new friends. They are different but very much alike. Sometimes our differences can be an opportunity to push others away. However, Grandpa and Sully New Friends shows us how to make friends through genuine hospitality and listening with understanding in order to discover common ground. Grandpa and Sully is a children's book about friendship.
