Minerva Louise at the Fair Janet Morgan Stoeke

The fair has come to town and everyone--including that curious and lovable hen Minerva Louise--wants to go. She has never been to a fair before, and quickly mistakes it for a rather remarkable farm. Twinkling stars fall from the sky. The horses going up and down and round and round their corral look almost too beautiful to be real. Tired out from exploring, Minerva Louise accidentally wanders into the judging tent and settles down in a cozy nesting box. She's in just the right spot when the prizes are handed out!

Illustrated in bright, carnival colors and an uncluttered graphic style, Minerva Louise's new adventure is sure to win a blue ribbon from her young fans--right along with their hearts.
