Excerpt from Separation of Panama From Colombia: Reply to Certain Statements Contained in the Work Entitled "History of the Panama Canal"

The party who replies logically to propositions made to him cannot be said to break off negotiations. The party guilty of this breach is the one who does not even acknowledge receipt of the communications of the other party and gives the character of an ultimatum, without stating this fact or as it were ex post facto, to his projects which he in this way attempted to force upon the other side.
